Subject: FN0385-Red Sea Urchins - Area Licencing Selection Results

The second round of selection for the 2009/10 Red Sea Urchin area licencing process is complete. 11 round two area selection forms were submitted to the Department prior to the May 25, 2009 deadline. 3 of the forms submitted prior to the deadline selected the South Coast licence area. An additional 46 licences were placed in the South Coast licence area by default. These were licences that were eligible for the South Coast in the last season, and did not submit a new selection form for the 2009/10 season or that chose the South Coast in round one but did not send in a round two form. After the second round, a total of 49 licences are designated to the South Coast licence area. 61 licence tabs are designated to the North Coast licence area. The final quotas for the 2009/10 season are finalized; and with the present licence distribution the South Coast individual quota will equal approximately 32,306 lbs. The North Coast individual quota will equal approximately 139,688 lbs. The following is a list of the licence tabs currently designated to the South Coast licence area.
